Presented by
THE SENIOR CLASS

COMO HIGH SCHOOL
Como, Texas

DEDICATION

To the students of Como High School, we dedicate this yearbook. Had it not been for the loyalty of the student body and the faculty, our efforts to edit this book would have been in vain. It is your book, your school, and your life, as well as ours, that you find depicted in its pages. If in reading the volume you are made to feel glad that you have attended Como High School, if you are proud of the acquaintances and contacts you have made, and the work you have accomplished, then the book is eminently worth all the sacrifices that have been made to present this book to you, as a pleasant reminder of the present and a cheerful companion, we hope, for the future.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

The members of the Senior Class of Como High School, being of sound mind and in full possession of their faculties, do hereby make and declare our last will and testament.

Jointly we bequeath the following: Our dignity, duties and demerits to the Juniors.

Our sense of humor, our sense of honor, and our common sense to the Sophomores.

Our love for the Alma Mater and our ambitions and every good thought we ever had to the Freshmen.

To the Seventh and Eighth grades, we leave our rattlers, our horns, and other childish implements of pleasure.

Individually the following bequeaths are made:

PATRICIA SPARKMAN leaves her faithfulness to go steady with one boy to JANICE HUMPHREY.

JUANITA CARPENTER leaves her shyness toward the male sex to SHIRLEY RAY.

ELIZABETH LEWIS leaves her ability to play basketball to MARGARET YARBROUGH.

PHYLLIS BURNS wills her ability to make eyes at strange boys to SANDRA WALLACE.

JANIS FRIDDLE wills her ability to talk to PATSY HOPSON.

SHIRLEY SEAWRIGHT wills her ability to get her work in on time to RAEVANELL NICHOLS.

RUBY FAY CARPENTER leaves her ability to finish high school and seek newer and broader fields of matrimony to the JUNIOR CLASS GIRLS.

TOMMY WALTERS leaves his ability to learn Bookkeeping to MAX TEER.

TAL STONE leaves his nice hair-do to TRAVIS ROBERTS.

THOMAS RAY LIVINGSTON leaves his shyness toward girls to FRED CARPENTER.

JERRY PETTY leaves his ability to get out of school in 12 years to ALVIN MOSS.

Better hurry Alvin!

ODIS HOLCOMB wills his typing ability to CHARLES COKER.

MELVIN DIXON leaves his ability in shorthand to THOMAS LEE KIGHT.

JAMES DIAMOND leaves his plow and overalls to STANLEY GARVIN.

Signed: SENIORS OF TODAY

MILLIONAIRES OF TOMORROW

*Congratulations on being
